

ATTORNEYS' EXAMINATION

PROCESS TO CONVERT THE TWO-DAY CERTIFICATION OF FITNESS APPLICATION TO THE ONE-DAY FITNESS APPLICATION FOR THE ATTORNEYS' EXAMINATION

Applicants who request to convert must meet all of the following requirements:

- Must currently hold a valid Certification of Fitness as a two-day applicant OR have applied as a two-day applicant and are awaiting Certification of Fitness; and
- Must have been admitted by examination to the highest court of another United States jurisdiction.

You must email mendezs@gasupreme.us for a determination of eligibility regarding the conversion process.

Once you have received a written determination of eligibility. The Office of Bar Admissions must receive the ALL of the following by the appropriate posted deadline:

1. An original signed and notarized copy of the One-day Georgia Attorneys' Examination Affidavit (Click here for a PDF copy of the affidavit.);
2. A money order for the difference between the $900.00 regular filing fee for Fitness Application for the Attorneys' Examination and the regular filing fee you paid for the Fitness Application for the Regular Two-Day Examination (This is does not include late fees.).
3. A Letter of Good Standing from every jurisdiction in which you are admitted to practice law; and
4. A Record of your Disciplinary History from every jurisdiction in which you are admitted to practice law.

The deadline to convert for the February bar exam is the preceding September 1st at 4:00 p.m.

The deadline to convert for the July bar exam is the preceding March 1st at 4:00 p.m.

Keep in mind that if items 1-4 listed above are not received by the deadline, you will not be able to sit for the upcoming one-day Attorneys' examination.
